Conference Mission

The goal of Moving Beyond the Bruises is to provide practical instruction using current information, the newest ideas, and most successful intervention strategies, to those professionals responsible for combating the many and varied forms of crimes against women.

The conference is conducted for the sole purpose of providing training to those people employed by governmental or non-profit agencies in roles such as victim advocates, prevention educators, mental health professionals, campus professionals, medical providers, law enforcement, probation / parole, campus safety, prosecutors, military command and advocacy, offender treatment professionals, school counselors, or any others who work directly with victims of crime.

This convenient and cost-effective program is completely virtual – no travel expenses!

Conference topics may include:

- Polyvictimization
- Domestic Violence and Mental Health
- Community Accountability
- Growth of the Domestic Violence Movement
